Annual vs. Monthly

Market Review

The Lightstone National inflation is 7.51 % for July 2014. Even though house price inflation in the different wealth segments usually tends to differ, inflation in the Mid Value, High Value and Luxury segments is growing at a similar rate. The affordable segment is however, against the trend at 16.15%.

The recent interest rate hikes totalling to 0.75% in the past 8 months has raised speculation that the steady growth in house prices experienced in the past year might be coming to an end.

The extent to which these increases on the interest rates have trickled down to the property market is not yet apparent. The amount of SIE (Sales in Execution) notices recorded in the market is currently still stable but growth in new bonds issues has slowed down when compared to a year ago.

This reduction in new bonds issued might lead to a peaking in house price growth but the main determinant of a general slowdown in the market will only become apparent once mortgage defaults significantly increase.

Shining A Light On Our Approach...

Methodology:

Lightstone applies the repeat sales methodology when reviewing and reporting on property data. In contrast to 'average house price' indices, repeat sales indices provide a measure of the actual price inflation of houses that have transacted twice within a particular period of time. The main benefit of this is that it is less influenced by the mix of transacting properties. The repeat sales methodology is recognised as the premier methodology for indexing house prices and is used by many international residential property price indexers including the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight (OFHEO) in the United States.

Data:

All property transactions in South Africa are registered in the Deeds Office and each record contains the legal details of both the property and the transaction. For the purposes of the Repeat Sales Index for residential properties, the following transactions have been excluded: farms; any transactions which may be of a development, commercial or community services nature; new developments; sales made in execution of a judgement; non-arms-length transactions; transactions where the inflation is extremely different to the norm of the statistical distribution of inflation rates; and township transactions.

Caution:

Lightstone presents both annual and monthly inflation rates. Monthly inflation emphasises recent market performance (i.e. month on month) and is more volatile than annual inflation trends. Conclusions about the future trend of annual inflation, based on monthly inflationary rates, must be made with caution.

Disclaimer:

The Lightstone Repeat Sales Index system applies advanced statistical methods to a comprehensive property database - compiled from the Deeds Office, the Surveyor General and other sources - to generate repeat sales inflation data for individual residential properties. Despite the statistical and actuarial rigour applied, Lightstone cannot guarantee the accuracy and reliability of the data. Furthermore, the index is a statistical tool and does not amount to advice and may not be applicable in some cases.
